Marymount to Present Gaelic Music Program

St. Patrick's Day will receive a traditional holiday musical preview when Sven and Anne Reher present a recitalogue titled "Gaelic Music and Folklore" at Marymount College tonight.

The popular husband and wife team will recall folk tales which date back hundreds of years before the time of Christ, and exquisite music which tell their legendary tales. They have done extensive research into the pre-Christian folklore of Ireland.

THE PROGRAM will begin with the musical history of Ireland as far back as the time of Moses, continuing through the Irish sagas, to Conor, the Finlan heroes, Cucullain, Brian, Boru, Tara, Patrick and the contribution of Ireland to the development of the chant and modern music.

"Tribute to Irish music has been paid by Dante, Bacon and Spenser. An Irish song is mentioned by Shakespeare in one of his plays and the Irish harp appeared on the coinage of Henry VIII," points out Reher, known both as a violist and linguist.

To be heard on the program will be some of the most beautiful Irish music from the Bunting, Moore and Petrie collections, which the Rehers have arranged for viola, piano and voice presentation.

THESE WILL include "Green Bushes," "Cradle Song" and "Jig" from the Petrie collection, and among the more familiar will be "Farewell to Cucullain." Mrs. Reher, also a vocalist, will preside at the piano.

There will be no admission charge and public is cordially invited to attend the recitalogue. It will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the student-faculty center on the Palos Verdes Estates campus directly opposite Marine-land.

IN TEXAS . . . Captain Robert R. Pedigo, who is married to the former Robin G. Rascoe of 3218 Torrance Blvd., has entered United States Air Force pilot training at Webb AFB, Tex. He will fly T-37 and T-33 jets during the year-long flying training course.
